Potential Acquisition Donor Questionnaire

Objects offered to the Dickinson Museum Center's collections will be considered by museum staff and the collections committee of the board of directors of the Southwest North Dakota Museum Foundation. Decisions are based on how well the materials adhere to the mission and purpose of the museum and acquisition criteria contained in the museum's collection policy. Please complete this form in as much detail as possible so the Dickinson Museum Center will have adequate information to make a decision about potential acquisitions (continue on additional pages if necessary).
